

As a service for young people, this is how we incentivise our service users.

- ✓ We offer free gym passes to help maintain a healthy lifestyle
- ✓ We offer talent bonds to invest a residents talents, interests and wellbeing
- ✓ We offer vouchers for hard work or working on Projects
- ✓ We are the only accommodation service in Cork for young people which allows visitors/overnight visitors
- ✓ We check residents rooms less if they are keeping it reasonably clean
- ✓ We operate a TV purchase scheme to help residents purchase a TV, subject to a reasonable criteria
- ✓ We organise and contribute towards resident activities and social outings
- ✓ We offer free cooking sessions and will show residents how to cook or bake anything that they want to learn, when asked
- ✓ We encourage residents to have a say in the service from residents meetings to the Management meetings
- ✓ We offer an opportunity to give back to the community through the Foyer Ground Force Team
- ✓ We offer the opportunity to work in the Cafe
- ✓ We work in close partnership with Cork Community Bikes who will allow residents to use their facilities and buy cheap parts etc
- ✓ We have a step down flat & student accommodation to move onto
- ✓ We, on occasions, take young people to the Birmingham Foyer practice event
- ✓ We, on occasions, consult with residents or allow other organisations to consult with residents on issues that affect young people and the homeless
- ✓ We now offer the large rooms to proactive members of the Health and Social Committee
- ✓ We will offer residents a raised bed in the garden if they want to grow their own vegetables or flowers
- ✓ We will provide residents with the materials and support to make a product in the workshop, when asked
- ✓ We offer bedding, food, toiletries and occasionally clothing for new residents who have no income in place
- ✓ We provide some free employability courses
- ✓ We provide some starter classes for those not in education, training or work
- ✓ When a young person moves on from the Foyer successfully, we provide a safety net if they need to return

Resident Signature

Staff Signature

Date _____