

CORK

Mini Boat

ATLANTIC ADVENTURE

A mini boat has sailed across the Atlantic Ocean from Charleston, South Carolina, USA and arrived in Cork. We need your help designing the boat for the return journey across the Atlantic Ocean.

To prepare for the adventure home, Cork City Council and Creative Ireland are inviting Cork primary school children to submit designs inspired by Cork and its special relationship with the ocean. The designs will be used to create a collage which will be placed on the boat. The artwork will also be converted into a virtual exhibition and feature in a mini boat pocket book to mark the project.
