WITH COMPLIMENTS OF ART O'BRIEN.

THE LATE LORD MAYOR OF CORK.

The following are some of the many messages received by the relatives to-day. They want to express their gratitude, and hope their friends will understand that it is impossible to send individual replies.

BISHOP OF KERRY, Killarney.

"Deepest sympathy with you all in your bereavement."

BISHOP COTTER OF PORTSMOUTH, Portsmouth.

"Allow me to express my sincerest prayerful sympathy in your and family's personal loss. May the life your heroic husband has nobly given for Ireland's cause quickly and surely secure it."

DESMOND FITZGERALD, Member Dail Eireann (Pembroke) and Wife.

"Our deepest sympathy with you and Mrs. MacSwiney in your great loss. Loving admiration for Terry's noble sacrifice."

O'CALLAGHAN, Mayor of Limerick, Limerick.

"I tender you in the name of this city our deep sympathy all honour to the spirit of one of the bravest men I have ever known. His name will be an inspiration for ever."

J. L. FAWSITT, Consul-General of Irish Republic at Washington.

"Our hearts go out to you and daughter to his sisters and brothers in your irreparable loss. In death Terence is free as in life he willed to be. His heroic and your devoted self-sacrifice illumine and ennoble our cause. His immortal spirit marches with his comrades to final victory for Ireland. May God comfort and sustain you all. A grateful country will not forget you."

JAMES O'MARA, Member of Dail Eireann and Head of the Irish Republican Bond Drive in U.S.A. New York.

"In bitter resentment and with deepest sympathy all your colleagues."

FATHERS McGRATH AND CAHALANE, CORK,

"Please convey relatives of dead Lord Mayor sympathy and admiration."

CANON BREEN, Seminary, Killarney, Kerry.

"Convey to Lady Mayoress and Terry's sisters this expression of my deepest sympathy. God grant his pure patriot soul eternal rest. After we saw him Saturday week I had hopes he might come through. Bishop has already wired Lady Mayoress."

SEAN T. O'KELLY, Republican Envoy, Paris.

"Sad news of death Lord Mayor MacSweeney just received. In poor Terry's prolonged martyrdom is typified the tragic story of Ireland's struggle for liberty through the centuries a "cause which inspires such heroic sacrifices as his cannot and

"will not fail. May God rest his noble soul. All France
"astonished at English callous brutality."

FROM AN INDIAN NATIONALIST.

"Mr. and Mrs. Shapurj, Saklatvala, send their thoughts to the "MacSwineys that have lived and died for Ireland, for Freedom,
"for Human rights. One of them has died to-day, but what a
"thought of strength has taken birth in this that looks a
"death! R.I.P. No - In Hoc Signo Vincens! "

MOLLY, GEORGINA and OLIVIA BUCKLEY, Cork.

"Deepest sympathy from your old pupils."

FATHER D. LUCEY MACROOM, Cork.

"Deepest sympathy on your great loss Toirdealbhachs heroism
"for Ireland's independence shall live eternally in golden
"memory."

MISS LOUISE GAVAN DUFFY, Dublin.

"We join with you in proud and loving sympathy. He has fought
"the good fight. He has finished his course."

Madame.

La Fédération régionaliste de Bretagne réunie ce jour à Rennes, vous adresse à vous et à votre famille ses très respectueuses condoléances, et vous assure de la part qu'elle prend à votre douleur et au deuil qui vous frappe en même temps que l'Irlande et toute la famille celtique. Elle espère que le sacrifice sublime du lord maire Mac-Sweeney, qui demeurera dans l'histoire comme l'une des plus pures et des plus nobles manifestations de patriotisme, viendra bientôt couronner les aspirations du vaillant peuple Irlandais. Puisse cette assurance et nos prières fortifier votre âme.

Nous vous remercions, Madame, notre sympathie et notre admiration, en vous priant de vouloir bien agréer notre profond respect.

To Mrs Jerome Mac Sweeney
Lady Mayoress of Cork.

My dear Lady Mayoress

I have been instructed by the members of the Cardiff No 7 Branch Irish Self Determination League to write and convey to you their deepest sympathy in the sad loss you have sustained in the death of your ~~dear~~ heroic husband Jerome Mac Sweeney Lord Mayor of Cork. His death under such revolting circumstances has been a source of inspiration to us all and it has carried with it a determination on our part to continue the glorious work that he has left off until Ireland has once more been crowned with the diadem of Nationality and stands before the World.

"First flower of the Earth first gem of the Sea"

May God in his infinite mercy grant you the Grace to bear up under this terrible blow caused by the most disgraceful and tyrannical Government that any Country has been cursed with.

Once & more my dear Lady Mayoress accept the heartfelt sympathy of the members of our Branch and also my own deep sympathy in your sad loss.

Sincerely yours
